PREFACE

This edition of the Check List of Foreign Newspapers in the Library of Congress is a new compilation throughout. It is arranged as a single alphabet of countries, each subalphabeted by cities and towns.

The edition published in 1904, compiled under the direction of Allan Bedient Slauson, contained 1,034 titles, of which 498 have since been removed from the newspaper collections. Among these are the official gazettes. To the remaining 536 titles, new titles have been added representing the accessions during the 24-year period. Certain other classified sets, because they are newspapers or approximate them in character, have also been listed with their classification numbers indicated. The resulting total is 2,689 titles. The sets include 18,427 volumes, published in 79 countries in 21 languages. They have been collated, and bibliographical details of dates of establishment, changes in titles, periodicity, etc., have been gathered from all available sources. All volumes are folio unless the size is given.

Under my supervision and revision the work of compiling this list has been ably performed by A. B. Evans, assistant chief of the division, and A. E. Reyman, W. A. Johns, and other assistants. The assistant in charge of the Slavic section, Alexis V. Babine, supplied entries for many Russian files.

Respectfully submitted.

HENRY S. PARSONS,
Chief, Periodical Division.

HERBERT PUTNAM,
Librarian of Congress.
